ODE-TO-CODE

1. INTRODUCTION:

ODE-TO-CODE is a Competitive Programming (CP) contest designed to assess participants' ability to solve algorithmic problems efficiently under time constraints. Participants are required to write complete solutions from scratch based on the problem statements provided during the contest.

2. EVENT ELEMENTS:

- Algorithmic problem solving using standard data structures and algorithms
- Automatic judging with hidden test cases
- Real-time leaderboard
- Platform-level plagiarism detection
- Fair and competitive evaluation environment

3. RULES & REGULATIONS:

- The contest will be conducted on an online competitive programming platform.
- The final platform will be disclosed a few days before the event.
- The contest interface, submission format, judging process, and ranking methodology will strictly follow the rules and evaluation system of the chosen platform.
- Participants are expected to solve problems independently.
- Any form of plagiarism or identical submissions detected by the platform will result in immediate disqualification.
- Judge and platform decisions are final and binding

4. CONTEST FORMAT:

- Number of Problems: 6
- Total Duration: 3 hours
- Problems may be solved in any order.
- Each problem includes defined input/output formats and time/memory constraints

5. SUPPORTED PROGRAMMING LANGUAGES:

- C
- C++
- Java
- JavaScript
- Python

6. INPUT / OUTPUT GUIDELINES:

- Programs must read input from standard input (STDIN).
- Output must be written to standard output (STDOUT).
- Programs exceeding time limits will be terminated automatically.
- Output formatting must exactly match the problem statement

7. INPUT / OUTPUT GUIDELINES:

Participants must not:

- Copy or view other participants' solutions
- Share code or logic
- Use unauthorized resources
- Attempt to exploit or tamper with the platform Violation of rules will result in immediate disqualification

8. FINAL AUTHORITY:

- The organizing committee reserves the right to modify rules, disqualify participants for misconduct, and resolve unforeseen situations. All decisions taken by the judges and organizers are final
